

Bio – Anthony J. Mullen

Anthony J. Mullen has served as Chairman of the Children of the Father Foundation since 1997, when he founded the charity as a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization under the spiritual direction of Monsignor Shawn Mahoney.

Under his leadership, the foundation has grown to become the world's largest provider of free materials on the Total Consecration to Jesus through Mary. The MyConsecration.org website represents the latest step in expanding efforts to bring the devotion to every corner of the world.

Mullen is a contributor to The Catholic Standard and Times, the official newspaper of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. He also has edited several Catholic books and released the DVD "Giving God the Love We Should," which features Cardinal Justin Rigali.

Mullen is a member of Legatus, the Militia of the Immaculata and the Stewards of St. John Neumann. He has received the St. Maximilian Kolbe Award for outstanding evangelization/outreach from the In His Sign Network.

He and wife Linda have been married for 31 years. They have four children – Kimberly, Andrew, Kelly and Matthew – and one son-in-law, Quincy.
